

Nathan Somevi

Guitarist | Composer | Independent Artist

Glasgow, Scotland | nathansomevi.com | Booking: [insert public email]

Glasgow-based guitarist and composer blending jazz, Ghanaian rhythm, gospel harmony, R&B colour and improvisation. Available for festivals, jazz clubs, arts venues, cultural events, churches, private events and collaborative projects.

ABOUT

Nathan creates expressive guitar-led music rooted in jazz language, Ghanaian influence, church harmony and improvisation. His live work moves from intimate solo guitar textures to full-band performances built around original composition, groove and emotional storytelling.

LISTEN / WATCH

- Featured release: [Call You Later / Brave / Can't Be Done] - [link]
- Live video: [YouTube/Vimeo link]
- Bandcamp / streaming: [link]
- Press/radio files: [private download link]

SELECTED HIGHLIGHTS

- Scottish Jazz Awards Rising Star finalist.
- SAMA nomination.
- Featured work on Black Oot Here: Dreams O Us.
- Projects connected with Glasgow Jazz Festival and Edinburgh Jazz & Blues Festival/EXPO.
- Original releases including Can't Be Done and Brave.

LIVE FORMATS

- Solo guitar - intimate listening rooms, galleries, churches and smaller venues. 30-60 min.
- Duo / trio - flexible jazz-club format with deeper groove and improvisation. 45-75 min.
- Full band - hybrid guitar, tenor sax, keyboard and drums for festivals, theatres and larger stages. 45-90 min.

DOWNLOADS

- EPK web page: [link]
- Press photos: [link]
- Tech rider and stage plot: [link]
- Bio and artwork: [link]

CONTACT

Booking / press: [insert public email]

Website: nathansomevi.com

Location: Glasgow, Scotland

Socials: [Instagram] | [YouTube] | [Bandcamp] | [Spotify]

GOOD FIT FOR

- Jazz festivals
- Arts centres
- Listening rooms
- Cultural events
- Churches and community projects